A Home at Plean, Stirlingshire, for old men in good health, a preference being normally given to those who have served in the Navy or Army.

The Home is situated within its own policy grounds of some 15 acres, and on a bus route about 5½ miles from Stirling. The authorised number of inmates is 45.

To qualify for admission to the Home, it is not necessary for applicants to provide any clothing, or to contribute towards the cost of their maintenance. If, however, they have any pension or other source of income, they are required for the sake of fairness to the other old men in the Home, so long as they remain in residence, to surrender such pension or source of income to the Trustees to be employed for the general good of the Home. Subject to this, their entire maintenance, including board and clothing is provided free of cost by the Trust. The present practice, which the Trustees reserve power to vary or discontinue at any time, is to give each man an allowance of tobacco, beer and pocket money.

Applications for admission to the Home, or for further particulars, should be made to the Treasurer :—
